

Queens Tribune

November 7-13, 2008

ELMHURST HOSPITAL HOSTS HOSPICE CARE CLINIC

From Monday, Nov. 17 to Friday, Nov. 21 Elmhurst Hospital will recognize National Hospice and Palliative Care Month by presenting a number of events that are open to the community.

Beginning at 4:30 p.m. Nov. 17 the Van Williams Broadway Photography Art Exhibit will be open for viewing in the main lobby of the hospital. Community members are welcome to stop by all week and enjoy photographs by the late Broadway photographer Van Williams who was a patient of the hospital.

From 3 to 5 p.m. on Nov. 18 from in AI-Auditorium, Dr. Cynthia Pan of Hospice Care Network will join the Palliative Care Team at Elmhurst Hospital to present an overview on Palliative Care and Hospice - discussing the relevance of advanced directives.

From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Nov. 19 at the Broadway Entrance Lobby and Nov. 20 at the 41st Entrance Lobby, hospital representatives will be available to answer questions and help community members complete health care proxy forms. The week's activities will end on the 21st with a Palliative Care Memorial Service to remember those who recently lost their lives while on the Palliative Care Service.

All activities are open to the community. For more information call (718) 334-2660.

Dr. Cynthia Pan will provide an overview of Palliative Care at Elmhurst Hospital